About the Seminar:

The National Education Policy (NEP) 2020 immensely emphasizes multidisciplinary, experiential and learner-centric education for a transformational and progressive education system. As Generative AI and digital technologies rapidly transform global academic landscapes, integrating AI tools effectively while safeguarding critical thinking, ethical governance, and humanities perspectives becomes vital. This interdisciplinary National Seminar aims to bring together academicians, researchers, policymakers and students from all the various educational fields to deliberate on leveraging AI to fulfill NEP's holistic vision.

Sub-Themes:

1. Generative AI as a tool for creative writing, literary analysis, and translation.
2. Digital humanities and Indian Knowledge Systems (IKS) in light of NEP goals.
3. Language equity, regional language learning, and multilingual AI models.
4. AI ethics, digital divide, and inclusion policies in Indian Higher Education Institutions (HEIs).
5. Algorithmic bias, data privacy, and surveillance politics in digital classrooms.

6. Governance of AI in education: Policy frameworks aligning with NEP recommendations.
7. Outcome-Based Education (OBE) and AI-assisted personalized learning modules.
8. Rethinking assessment methods and academic integrity in the era of ChatGPT/LLMs.
9. Multidisciplinary course design merging English, Political Theory, and Tech Literacy.
